

FELECIA ROTELLINI FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

Felecia Rotellini: Arizona's Lawyer, Advocate, and Voice

Arizonans deserve to be protected from criminals, whether they carry guns or briefcases. As Arizona's Attorney General, I will fight to keep our citizens safe in their homes, protect their finances and businesses, and make sure the state respects and protects their interests. I pledge to continue to:

- Crack down on financial fraud, drug dealers and human smugglers
- Protect the elderly, children and our most vulnerable
- Fight for consumer, environmental, and civil rights

The Attorney General is the state's top law enforcer. Through my service as an Assistant Attorney General and as Superintendent of the Arizona Department of Financial Institutions, I have a 17-year record of enforcing the law fairly without regard for how powerful or connected a person or company may be perceived. I've worked to reform the mortgage industry so that Arizona will avoid a similar financial crisis in the future, and I'll use those same skills as Attorney General.

Certainly there will be political controversies; that comes with the job. Yet, the Attorney General has a responsibility to set aside political ambitions and follow the law, and that is what I will do. My office will always be honest about the facts and the law, and I will always act in the best interest of our state.

Stewardship of the public trust is serious business. My job as Attorney General is to ensure that public dollars – throughout state government – are spent properly and that agencies are held accountable for the decisions they make. I will work to make government run smoothly and effectively for all Arizonans.

Protecting and serving the citizens of Arizona has been my life's work and passion - that is my record; that is why I am the best choice for Attorney General. I will be Arizona's lawyer, advocate, and voice.